If a time death with a difficult employee what will I do that time :-

I believe any difficult situation can be handle by keeping a calm mind.

The first step is to know the root cause of the problems and then do the needful to solve the problems. Reaching out to your seniors friends who have faced similar situation and taking their suggestion is also good way but we must try to solve the problem by self. who know we find out an innovation innovative way to solve the problems

Describe the situations.

Explain the problems.

Detail the step you took to rectify the issue.

I preferred to teamwork. Because

Below here :- I feel more motivated when work with a group. I enjoy having other people around to bounce ideas off. I find that one person can say something that jogs your mind and prompts you to come up with a completely new creative thought or ideas. I enjoy that kind of experience. plus I feel that everyone has something different to contribute to an effort because we all come from such diverse backgrounds.

And that's why I preferred to work with team.
