My mother prepared egg fry and rice for me. It was so tastefull, I could not imagine the taste of that food. Was it the food from the paradise? I started eating and I heard a knock from the door. I went to the door and open it. Then it was a astonishing incident.who knocked the door she was my mother. If she was my mother who prepared and served food for me, I was puzzled. I entered into the room again then I saw no one in the room!
