(2) Void Agreement:- An agreement not enforceable by law is said to be void.

/ A void agreement does not create any legal rights or obligations.

(3) void contract:- A contract which ceases to be enforceable by law becomes void when it ceases to be enforceable.

(4) Illegal Agreement:- An illegal agreement is one which transgresses some rules or basic public policy or which is criminal in nature or which is immoral. All illegal agreements are void but all void agreements are not necessarily illegal.

(5) Unenforceable Contract:- An unenforceable contract is one which cannot be enforced in court of law because of some technical defect such as absence of writing etc.

* Formation:- There are four formation classification
Contract -

(a) Express Contract:- If the terms of Contract expressly agreed upon at the time of formation of the Contract, the Contract is said to be an express Contract.

(b) Implied Contract:- An implied contract is one which is inferred from the acts or conduct of the parties or course of dealings between them.

(c) Quasi Contract:- A quasi contract is not a contract at all. A contract is intentionally entered into by the parties. A quasi contract is created by law.

(d) E-commerce Contract:- The contract which is entered into between two parties via internet Contract is called E-commerce contract.

* Performance:- There are four classification ^{Performance} Contract -

(a) Executed Contract:- Executed means that which is done. If both the parties have performed their obligations, they are executed contracts.

⑥ Executory Contract:- Both the parties have yet to perform their obligations. It may sometimes partly executed and partly executory.

Ans: to the question no - 06

* Ans:- Different rights of Indemnity Holder and Indemnifier discuss there are below —

* An Indemnity holder acting within the scope of his authority is entitled to the following rights —

① Right to recover damages—he is entitled to recover all damages which he might have been compelled to pay in any suit in respect of any matter covered by the contract.

② Right to recover costs—he is entitled to recover all costs incidental to the institution and defending of the suit.

③ Right to recover sums paid under compromise—he is entitled to recover all amounts which he had paid under the terms of the compromise of such suit.

④ Right to sue for specific performance—he is entitled to sue for specific performance if he has incurred absolute liability and the contract covers such liability. The promisee in a contract of indemnity, acting within the scope of his authority, is entitled to recover from the ~~the~~ promisor.

It is important to note here that the right to indemnify cannot be claimed if dishonesty, lack of good faith and contravention of the promisor's request.

* Right of Indemnification:-

The right of the indemnified and is quite silent of the rights of indemnifier as if the indemnifier has no rights but only liability towards the indemnified.

In the logical state of things if we read which deals with the rights of surety we can easily conclude that the indemnifier's right would also be same as that of surety. Where one person has agreed to indemnify the other he will on making good the indemnity be entitled to succeed to all the ways and means by which the person indemnified might have protected himself against himself for the loss.

Principle of Subrogation is applicable because it is an essential part of Law of indemnity and is based on equity and the Contract Act contains no provision in contravention. ~~of~~
